Part-time (50% - 20 hours/week)

At Belrose Uniting Church, Sydney.

To begin in 2019

Belrose Uniting Church, an evangelical congregation on Sydney's northern beaches plateau, is seeking a suitable qualified and trained person to engage in ministry with children, youth and young adults.

The successful applicant will:

- be someone passionate to see youth, young adults and children come to faith in Christ and grow in spiritual maturity
- work with a team of volunteers in:
 - * overseeing a high school Friday night youth group
 - * discipling and mentoring high school youth and young adults;
 - * overseeing Children's ministry (Sunday School) on Sunday mornings
 - * bridging young people from Sunday School into youth group
 - * teach SRE at the local Public School
 - * participating in the Sunday evening youth service
- be a person demonstrating mature Christian faith
- have some experience in youth and children's ministry;
- have some theological and ministry training;
- share the reformed and evangelical beliefs as described in our Congregation Statement of Faith (see web-site);
- not be a prohibited person under the Commission for Children and Young People Act 1998, and hold a current Working With Children Check clearance;
- hold a valid entitlement to work in Australia.

Appropriate remuneration will be paid according to qualifications and experience.

Application close on 31st December 2018 with Interviews held in January 2019.
