*Be still, my soul: the Lord is on your side;
bear patiently the cross of grief or pain;
leave to your God to order and provide;
in every change he faithful will remain.*

Be still, my soul: your best, your heavenly Friend through thorny ways leads to a joyful end.

Be still, my soul: your God will undertake to guide the future as he has the past.

*Your hope, your confidence let nothing shake;
all now mysterious shall be bright at last.*

Be still, my soul: the waves and winds still know his voice who ruled them while he dwelt below.

*Be still, my soul: when dearest friends depart,
and all is darkened in the vale of tears,
then shall you better know his love, his heart,
who comes to soothe your sorrow and your fears.*

Be still, my soul: your Jesus can repay from his own fullness all he takes away.

*Be still, my soul: the hour is hastening on when we shall be forever with the Lord,
when disappointment, grief, and fear are gone,
sorrow forgot, love's purest joys restored.*

*Be still, my soul: when change and tears are past,
all safe and blessed we shall meet at last.*

Dear Friends,

It is week 7 of our Covid-19 lockdown, but I draw comfort in the knowledge that it also brings us closer to the end of these unsettling times. I pray that you are enduring this time of social distancing and isolation with patience and hope. As restrictions start to be relaxed, I look forward to the day when we can meet together again physically in worship and fellowship, whenever that will be.

In these challenging times we draw on our faith to sustain us, faith that is grounded in the knowledge of God's faithfulness, and the hope we have in the death, resurrection, and imminent return of our Lord & Saviour Jesus. The season of Easter, and as we approach the Day of Pentecost, reminds us that we don't face this time alone. The Living Lord Jesus is with us, and the Day of Pentecost assures us that the Holy Spirit is with us; to strengthen, guide and comfort.

We grieve with those who have been devastated by the pandemic virus: those who have lost loved ones, those who have lost jobs or businesses, those who feel vulnerable and insecure, those who feel acutely the loss of personal contact with family and friends.

In these troubling times I have been reminded of a great hymn: Be still my soul. A hymn that beautifully assures us of God's sovereignty and faithfulness.

Over these next few Sundays, as we draw near to Pentecost Sunday (31st May), I will be reflecting on the hope and confidence we have because of Christ's resurrection (see the "Preaching Plan" at the end of this newsletter). I hope you will find strength, faith, hope and peace in the grace and mercy of God given to us in the risen Lord Jesus.

In the mean time, I hope that you will also keep connected by phone, email, and web meetings. Please do not hesitate to contact me to chat and let me know how you are going. I continue to uphold you in prayer and ask God's continued blessing for you and your family.

In Christ, Ian Weeks

Because of Jesus' Resurrection, We Have ..... #2 A New Confidence!

The Book of Acts provides us with wonderful insights into the power of the Gospel as the early Church proclaimed the good news that Jesus is alive and that He is Lord over all. They did so with great boldness and much joy, even in the midst of great hardship, persecution and suffering.

"Day after day, in the temple courts and from house to house, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming the good news that Jesus is the Messiah." (Acts 5:42)

It is sometimes difficult to imagine that, before the day of Jesus' resurrection, the disciples of Jesus were fearful, nervous, hiding and cowering in fear of the Jewish religious leaders and the Roman authorities. What changed these meek mannered disciples into courageous proclaimers of the Word of God?

Read 1 Corinthians 15:1 – 19

A Prayer: Almighty God, you have given us Your word to be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path. Grant us grace to receive Your truth in faith and love, that we may be obedient to Your will and live always for Your glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

1. From Cowering to Courageous: Transformed Disciples

Undoubtedly, the Day of Pentecost, whereby the followers of Jesus were empowered by the Holy Spirit (Acts 2), was a significant factor in the boldness of the early Church. But their boldness was also bolstered by the certainty of their message: Jesus is alive!!

"Now, brothers and sisters, I want to remind you of the gospel I preached to you, which you received and on which you have taken your stand. By this gospel you are saved, if you hold firmly to the word I preached to you."
1 Cor 15:1, 2

They had confidence in the reality of Jesus' resurrection, and therefore confidence in the message that Jesus is Lord. The resurrection of Jesus was crucial to their faith, and is crucial to ours.

2. The Resurrection: Cornerstone of the Gospel 1 Corinthians 15:3 - 19

The resurrection is crucial to the Gospel: a dead Saviour cannot save.
We can have confidence in the Gospel because Jesus is alive!

The reality of the physical resurrection of Jesus is attested to by:

i) Transformed lives: the disciples in Acts and the Corinthian Christians – sinners saved by the power of a living Saviour: "And that is what some of you were. But you were washed, you were sanctified, you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God." (1 Cor 6:11)

ii) God's Plans: "according to the Scriptures"

It was part of God's plan all along – to provide a perfect sacrifice for our sins, but also to conquer sin and death by raising Jesus to new life. This is what the whole Old Testament foretold and was looking forward to. (See also Luke 24:27)

iii) Eye Witnesses: some are still alive – ask them yourself!

The resurrection of Jesus wasn't some made up story or mass hallucination.

Many people saw Jesus alive after his death, and Paul basically says: "If you don't believe me, ask those who saw him" (in the flesh, as it were). It is true! Jesus is alive! And this has great implications for us all – He is Lord and we are accountable to Him. (See Acts 2:36).

iv) The Logic of Preaching: without the resurrection, our preaching is in vain

Paul reminds us that if Jesus is not alive, then all of our faith and hope is for nothing, and our message is meaningless.

If Jesus is not alive, then God is not powerful to save us and to change us; the Gospel is empty, and our words and work for the Gospel will be fruitless. We would have no message to offer and no hope and comfort to give.

"For I am not ashamed of the gospel, because it is the power of God that brings salvation to everyone who believes: first to the Jew, then to the Gentile." (Romans 1:16)

3. The Resurrection: The Source of Our New Confidence

Because Jesus is alive:

* Our fears, doubts & anxieties about the present and the future are turned on their heads. We have hope!

* We can stand firm with confidence – Jesus is alive! He is with us by the Holy Spirit.

* We can serve and labour for the Gospel knowing our witness and our work is not in vain.

"Therefore, my dear brothers and sisters, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labour in the Lord is not in vain." 1 Cor 15:58

Reflection: What difference does it make to our faith and life knowing that Jesus is alive?
What might cause us to hesitate to tell others that Jesus is alive?
In the light of the reality of Jesus' resurrection, what message can we bring to our community?

A Prayer: Gracious God our Heavenly Father, You loved the world so much that you sent Your only Son to bring us life eternal. Dying, He destroyed our death, alleluia. Rising, He restored our life, alleluia. And so we praise you and thank you, and ask that Your Holy Spirit will continue to empower us to boldly proclaim: The Lord is risen! Amen.

Celebrating God's Gift of Marriage – Congratulations Sam & Hazel!!

Saturday 3rd May 2020 saw a very different wedding at Belrose Uniting Church: no excited and jubilant crowd packing out the worship space, no parade of flower girls, page boys, bridesmaids or groomsmen.

Due to the Covid-19 restrictions it was just a very happy couple, a delighted Minister, and immediate family as witnesses, as Sam Whybrow and Hazel Dulin pledged themselves to each other, and to God, in the covenant of marriage. What a joyous occasion!

It was a simple ceremony, but with immense meaning, as this lovely Christian couple expressed their desire to have their life-long marriage relationship be a demonstration of the Gospel.

They chose two Bible readings: 1 Corinthians 13:4 – 13 (Paul's classic exposition on the nature of love) and Colossians 3:12 - 15

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. (Col 3:12 – 15)

Certainly it was disappointing that all their family and friends could not be present to witness this occasion, to pray for them, and celebrate with them.

However, Sam & Hazel are planning to provide such an occasion later in the year.

They hope you will be able to join them for this celebration.

We pray God's riches blessing on Sam & Hazel for their future together as husband and wife.
